Starbucks Coffee Company

Joshua Olabosipo, Store Manager confirmed that Daniel was employed on a full-time basis (He worked upwards of 30 hours a week while he was completing his bachelor’s degree at UMD) from 2013 to 2019 when he left the company when he began his graduate program overseas. He had spent time as a barista before he was promoted to Shift Supervisor.

Dan had no assigned company tools to return at the time of his departure

Joshua stated that Dan was a partner who they would recommend for rehire in a heartbeat. He noted that he was a true team player and leader and was always willing to take and give feedback to support his peers hence a great addition to any team he would be on

Joshua believes that Dan would show how dynamic of a worker and leader that he was just like he showed them at Starbucks

Candidate’s contribution to the organization or any outstanding achievements

- ✓ He constantly proved himself to be an incredibly reliable, hardworking and caring leader in their team
- ✓ He made constant strides in his leadership helping the team achieve many of the goals they had set. Whether it was a sales goal for a new promotion, like National Croissant Day, or a customer satisfaction goal, Dan showed the ability to galvanize the partners he worked with in order to achieve results.
- ✓ He was seen as a senior spokesman on his Shift Supervisor team and often had other Supervisors reaching out to him for support and advice

Candidate’s strength

- ✓ He was a constant example of an excellent partner to everyone around him
- ✓ As the company rolled out new processes and programs, Dan showed that he was a quick learner through his ability to quickly comprehend and implement the changes
